

ASSIGNED DUTIES

Clearly identify each duty to be assigned to this service extender. Include information on the types of therapeutic services provided and the populations served.

- a. Administration of neuropsychological instruments to a variety of adult outpatients (brain injury, degenerative diseases, possible dementia, etc.)

- b. Complete psychotherapy with children, adolescents. Will complete intakes, establish treatment plans, write treatment session notes, discharge summaries.

- c. Complete pre-surgical psychological evaluations in concert with supervising psychologist for potential bariatric surgery patients.

- d. Complete couples, family counseling

- e. Complete psychoeducational groups and facilitate support groups with pre- and post-bariatric surgery patients.

TRAINING OR PREPARATION

Clearly identify the training or preparation this service extender has received in order to perform each of the duties listed.

- a. -Course work in neurological substrates of behavior
-Practica with supervised training in neuropsych instruments (D-Kefs, WAIS-IV, WMS-IV, RBANS, CVLTII, WRAT5, etc.)

-Additional orientation and supervised practice with unfamiliar instruments prior to use with patients.

- b. -Course work in child development, child and adolescent psychopathology, evidence-based treatment methods with children and adolescents.
-Supervised practica in my master's program clinic, seeing children and adolescents, for 2 semesters.

- c. -Coursework in completing psychological evaluations
-Readings and didactic training regarding psychological issues relevant to obesity, psychological considerations with bariatric surgery
-SE will observe 3 full evaluations prior to participating.

- d. -Coursework on couples/family issues, empirically validated treatment approaches with couples & families
-Community practicum at a community mental health center: couples & families made up 50% of caseload
-Initial 5 sessions will be co-facilitated with the psychologist

- e. -Coursework on group therapy interventions.
-Supervised group therapy practicum (1 semester)
-Specific bariatric orientation, training (described above)
-Review of all educational protocols with psychologist
-First 3 of each groups will be completed with psychologist